

Dennis J. Gallagher is the Auditor for the City and County of Denver. Mr. Gallagher was elected Auditor in July 2003, and was re-elected for a second term beginning in July 2007. Mr. Gallagher's current term will expire on the third Monday in July 2010.

The Auditor is responsible for:

- conducting financial and performance audits of City and County departments and agencies;
- countersigning and registering all contracts and grants of the City and County;
- chairing the Audit Committee which commissions and supervises the independent external audit of the finances of the City and County;
- providing other audit services and information to City Council, the Mayor and the public;
- ensuring compliance with the City's prevailing wage ordinance.

Honorable Dennis J. Gallagher
Auditor

Honorable Stephanie O'Malley
Clerk and Recorder

Stephanie O'Malley was elected Clerk and Recorder in July 2007. Ms. O'Malley also serves as Public Trustee, City Clerk, and Ex-Officio Clerk of the City and County of Denver. Ms. O'Malley's term will expire on the third Monday in July 2010.

The Clerk and Recorder's Office is responsible for managing personnel and technology to collect, preserve, and disseminate information (data and images in digital format and hard copy) that reflect and verify ownership, transfer, encumbrance, and foreclosure rights of all real property in the City and County of Denver; marital or domestic partnership commitments filed in the City and County of Denver; executive authorization to formally execute all contractual arrangements with the City and County of Denver; executive and legislative authorization to formally implement and publish all policy, ordinances, and appointments in the City and County of Denver; and elections, campaign finance, and lobbyist information.

The Election Division is responsible for conducting accurate, secure, and efficient elections for all Denver voters while providing fair and full access to the voting process. The division adheres to all statutory deadlines, maintains all voter registration records and election equipment, oversees candidate certification and ballot access procedures, builds and certifies all Denver election ballots and coordinated state and special district elections, and promotes public participation in the election process through a variety of formal programs including English and Spanish Outreach, Election Judge Recruitment and Training, Early Voting, and Mail0in Voting.
